

LANDERMASON NEWSLETTER JANUARY 2022

It's 2022...a belated Happy New Year!

We hope you are keeping well and looking forward to getting out and about a bit more this year! It's great to see more live music appearing on the horizon again and we're both looking forward to travelling a little bit further than our doorstep to perform some gigs!

NEW ALBUM NOW AVAILABLE!

Our new 8 track album is now available in CD format from our website or as a digital download from our Bandcamp page. It is also available to buy locally in Forum Books, Corbridge and in Olive and Myrtle, Bellingham both in Northumberland.

Thanks to everyone who has bought a copy. For those of you who are familiar with our previous recordings, you'll notice that this album is quite different, with the addition of choral arrangements on almost every track, written by Fiona specially for her nine-strong choir Dark Sky Voices.

The album launch itself took place in November in the beautiful setting of St Andrew's Church in Corbridge with around a hundred people attending. Video footage from the night can be viewed on our Youtube channel and a selection of photos have been posted on our facebook page.

Thanks to Ian Wylie for kindly taking both.

ALBUM of the MONTH!

Thank you to West Norfolk Radio for choosing our new album as their 'Album of the Month' for January which means it's getting lots of plays on various different programmes! Tracks have also been aired on Bishop FM.

News from Fiona Lander Composer!

Fiona now runs 3 different choirs and has been getting some excellent recognition for her choral writing with several orders coming in from choir leaders in the United States!

Over Christmas, she has been working hard to prepare a portfolio of scores and learning tracks ready for publication by www.choircommunity.net who will be adding her to their list of composers/arrangers in early February!

BAAFest 2022

Our very own small but perfectly formed music festival is scheduled to go ahead once again in September and promises to be another magnificent celebration of LIVE MUSIC! The line will be announced soon so check for updates on the BAAFest website and social media pages.

Thanks for your continued support. Hope to see you at a gig sometime soon!
